Dear Beloved Parishioners,

Stewardship Sunday is September 24, 2017

As a member of The City of St. Jude, Parish we will have the opportunity to renew our commitment to living the life of a good and faithful steward. As we reflect on the many blessings in our lives, let us pray to the Holy Spirit and ask for guidance as we recommit ourselves to sharing a portion of the gifts that God has given us.

Many members of our parish family can give witness to the peace and deepening of faith they have experienced by being good stewards of the gifts of time, talent and treasure given to us by our Lord. I am confident that many of you would like to respond more fully but are hesitant to share the special gifts given to us by God. If you find that you presently share two hours of your time each week as a volunteer, ask the Holy Spirit to help you to commit to sharing three or more hours a week.

If you think you have very few, if any, talents ask the Holy Spirit to help you to discern your special gifts and to share these as a volunteer. If you currently give less than 10 percent of your income to the church, prayerfully commit to giving five percent to your parish and five percent to other good works.

God has blessed each of us in many ways and we have an inherent need to give thanks to God. Will you place your trust in God by returning a portion of the gifts He has given you to help your parish and community. Remember, God has promised us that He will not be outdone in generosity.

I thank each of you for being a member of this parish and for your continuing generosity of time, talent and treasure.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Reverend Daniel Aloo Owuor, FMH, The City of St. Jude Parish
